IMPORTANT NOTICE TO ALL HIRSP POLICYHOLDERS

THIS IS A NOTICE OF CHANGE TO DEFINITIONS

Effective July 1, 2006

The definition of “Resident” has changed from 30 days to three months.

Part E. Definitions

“Resident” means a person who has been legally domiciled in this state for a period of at least 3 months or, with respect to an eligible individual, an individual who resides in this state. Legal domicile is established by living in the state and obtaining a Wisconsin motor vehicle operator’s license, registering to vote in Wisconsin, or filing a Wisconsin’s income tax return.

A child is legally domiciled in this state if the child lives in this state and if at least one of the child’s parents or the child’s guardian is legally domiciled in this state.

A person with a developmental disability or another disability that prevents the person from obtaining a Wisconsin motor vehicle operator’s license, registering to vote in Wisconsin, or filing a Wisconsin income tax return, is legally domiciled in this state by living in this state.
